Wagman Employees Spend “Day of Caring” at DreamWrights Youth & Family Theatre

(York, PA) On September 11, 2009, eight Wagman employees spent their 8-hour work day volunteering their service at DreamWrights Youth & Family Theatre in downtown York. They assisted with the organization of shoes used in various productions, painted, worked on a storage unit and cleared out space for an office. They also constructed racks for belts to hang on.

The Wagman Companies, long time supporters of the United Way, participates in an annual “Day of Caring” to assist others in the community. Wagman allows employees to contribute a specified number of hours for volunteer work, like this, on company time.
