Wagman Sponsors Fifth Annual Food Drive & Sculpture Contest

(York, Pa.) Wagman sponsored its fifth annual Food Drive and Can-Struction contest this summer where employees teamed up and collected canned goods and other non-perishable food items. On the final day of the food drive, teams had 90 minutes to construct their donations into sculptures. Photos of the final creations were featured on social media and the company intranet for voting.

Coming in first place was a team from Wagman's corporate office in York, Pa. with their sculpture, "Hunger Endgame." The team receives a certificate and $250 to designate to a non-profit of their choice. In second place was "Can of Thrones" by Wagman's construction office in downtown York. They will receive a certificate and $100 to designate to a non-profit of their choice.

- Wagman's York, Pa. Offices collected 1,820 pounds of food which were donated to Mr. Sandy's Veterans Shelter & Bell Family Shelter.
- Wagman's Berryville, Va. Office collected 106 pounds of food which were donated to FISH of Clarke County.
- Wagman's Dinwiddie, Va. Office collected 496 pounds of food which were donated to Cares, Inc. (Crisis Assistance Response Emergency Shelter).

In total, the Wagman employees collected and donated 2,422 pounds of food.
