Wagman Construction Breaks Ground on Downtown Shenandoah, Inc.'s New Center for Education, Business & Arts

(Shenandoah, PA) Wagman Construction, Inc. has been named the general contractor for the construction of Downtown Shenandoah, Inc.'s new Center for Education, Business & Arts \(CEBA\). A groundbreaking ceremony was held on Thursday, April 18, 2024, to celebrate the start of construction.

“At Wagman Construction, we're thrilled to partner with Downtown Shenandoah, Inc. on this cutting-edge project. It's not every day you get to build something that will have such a positive impact on so many lives. From fostering young minds to providing a platform for local businesses and artists, CEBA will truly be a space where education, commerce, and creativity can converge. We're excited to bring this vision to life!” says Jan Wagner, President of Wagman Construction.

The CEBA project, designed by Murphy & Dittenhafer Architects, will be built in two phases. Phase one will focus on completing the entire building structure and the first floor. This includes a Penn State classroom, commercial kitchen, and office space. Phase two will tackle the second floor, featuring a multi-purpose event center, a health center, and additional office spaces. The grand opening of CEBA is targeted for 2025.
