Lisa Wagman Glezer Named to Central Penn Business Journal Power 100 List

(York, PA) Lisa Wagman Glezer, President of Wagman, Inc. has been named to the 2025 Central Penn Business Journal Power 100 List.

This is the sixth annual list, which is compiled by Central Penn Business Journal's editorial staff and leadership team. The list is comprised of individuals from all industries who shape the community and influence the quality of life in our region. The goal is to showcase their accomplishments and reveal something meaningful about who they are.

This is the second year in a row Lisa Wagman Glezer has been named to the Power 100 List. She is part of the fourth generation of the family business which has experienced significant growth and success since she joined over 20 years ago. Lisa is actively engaged in the industry and community, volunteering, serving on boards and elevating construction industry initiatives. She currently serves on the Messiah University Board of Trustees, Associated Pennsylvania Constructors Board of Directors, Transportation Construction Industry-Political Action Committee Board of Directors as well as several community advisory groups.

Wagman is a multi-faceted construction firm with major operations in heavy civil, general construction, and geotechnical construction services. Founded in 1902, Wagman is a fourth generation, family-owned company with offices in Pennsylvania and Virginia and is headquartered in York, PA.
